

Modern Slavery Statement

This statement sets out the actions that PR Power Installations Limited takes to understand the potential modern slavery risks related to its business and to put in place steps that are aimed at ensuring that there is no slavery or human trafficking in its own business and its supply chains.

The Company recognises that it has a responsibility to take a robust approach to slavery and human trafficking and is absolutely committed to preventing slavery and human trafficking in its corporate activities and to ensuring that its supply chains are free from slavery and human trafficking.

As part of the Company's due diligence processes into slavery and human trafficking, we will engage with all key suppliers to ensure that they have a robust policy relating to Modern Slavery.

The Company will not support or deal with any business knowingly involved in slavery or human trafficking.

The senior management shall take responsibility for implementing this policy statement and its objectives and shall provide adequate resources and investment to ensure that slavery and human trafficking is not taking place within the organisation and within its supply chains.

A full copy of this policy will be accessible to all employees electronically.

This policy statement will be reviewed annually and published.

Name: Matt Russell

Managing Director PR Power Installations Ltd

Signed:

Date: 21/01/2021